Introduction

Welcome to East Ayrshire Council's Equality Week programme of events which will run from Saturday 3 March to Saturday 10 March 2012, with the aim of raising awareness of equality and diversity issues.

Equality, together with Quality, Access and Partnership, has been a Core Value of East Ayrshire Council since its inception in 1996. Our commitment to Equality is as relevant today as it was then and is in line with the 9 protected characteristics within the Equality Act 2010, namely disability, race, sex, age, sexual orientation, religion or belief / non belief, transgender, marriage and civil partnerships and pregnancy and maternity.

The Council and its Partners, including NHS Ayrshire and Arran, Strathclyde Police and Strathclyde Fire and Rescue, place equality at the heart of everything we do and are committed to ensuring equality of opportunity and social inclusion.

The Programme cover was designed by one of the four winners from a schools' competition that was open to all nursery, primary and secondary pupils within East Ayrshire. All competition entries will be on display in various locations throughout the week so that the work of our talented young people can be seen by a wider audience. Prizes were donated kindly by Kilmarnock Football Club, Odeon Cinema, Visions Leisure Centre, Galleon Centre and the Ayrshire Railway Preservation Group.

This Programme contains details of the free events that will take place during Equality Week, some of which have been organised by the Council and Community Planning partners and others by national agencies and community groups. Additional events, not listed within the programme, include four sessions delivered by 'Nil By Mouth' in New Farm Primary School, James Hamilton Academy, Greenmill Primary School and Cumnock Academy.

All events are free and whilst booking is not essential, where specified it would be helpful if places were booked in advance. This can be done by logging on to: <http://bookings.east-ayrshire.gov.uk/equalityweek2012> or by phone as detailed in the Programme.

East Ayrshire Council is grateful for the funding which has been provided through the Awards For All grant programme, which will assist us greatly in making this week long event successful.

Leader of East Ayrshire Council
