

EAST AYRSHIRE CHILD PROTECTION COMMITTEE

PRACTITIONER BRIEFING NOTE

NO 11

TOPIC: East Ayrshire Social Work Child Protection Procedures

BRIEFING: The above mentioned document – which can be accessed via the hyperlink below - provides Social Work staff with information on child protection processes and offers a framework for good professional practice, outlining sensible actions that might be taken when dealing with child protection work. They are designed to be practitioner led taking a social worker through the key steps in undertaking a child protection investigation and supporting a child on the child protection register.

Practitioners should be aware that the information provided in this document should be considered along with the National Guidance for Child Protection in Scotland 2014, the West of Scotland Child Protection Procedures 2011 and the National Risk Assessment Framework to support the Assessment of Children and Young People, 2012. These Social Work procedures will be reviewed in six months time.
