2018: YEAR OF YOUNG PEOPLE – MID YEAR REVIEW

Report by Depute Chief Executive (Safer Communities)

PURPOSE OF THE REPORT

1. The purpose of this report is to inform Members of the work being progressed against East Ayrshire's Year of Young People Plan. The report will outline the progress against the planned activity and the schedule of work planned for the remaining 6 months.

BACKGROUND

2. As part of the Scottish Government's Themed Year Programme 2018 was designated the Year of Young People (YoYP). As part of this year East Ayrshire developed a programme of activity in collaboration with young people and stakeholders. This programme of work became East Ayrshire's 2018 Year of Young People Plan, approved by Cabinet on the 13th December 2017.
3. It was agreed that a progress update would be presented in August of this year with a final evaluation in February 2019. A copy of the Mid-Year Report Can be found in appendix 1.

2018: YEAR OF YOUNG PEOPLE PLAN – PROGRESS TO DATE

4. During the first 6 months of the YoYP Plan we have seen 14 of the 18 highlight initiatives started or completed, with very positive feedback from young people and stakeholders. Each of these initiatives have been co-produced alongside young people, with young people often taking the leading role.
5. In addition we have seen a number of positive 'spin offs' as a result of the work surrounding the Year of Young People, including the welcoming of an Austrian Study Visit Group and a recognition event for Scout Leaders and Scout Participants.
6. Connected with the YoYP Plan we have seen transition of our former Children & Young People's Representative Forum to a Children and Young People's Cabinet, reinvigorating the engagement with our young people. This has also seen a very positive joint session between the Cabinet and the Community Planning Partnership's Executive Officers Group.

7. The work of our plan has also been followed intently through social media with the creation of an Instagram and SnapChat account building on the reach of both Council and Vibrant Communities Twitter and Facebook followings. This has proven a very useful engagement tool.

2018: YEAR OF YOUNG PEOPLE PLAN – NEXT STEPS

8. The working group will continue to implement the remaining highlight initiatives and are on track for full completion by the end of the Themed Year. It is worth noting that there are some significant events still to take place namely our planned Scottish Youth Parliament sitting in October, our Youth Conferences in November and the Celebration Showcase in December.
9. Officers and young people are and will continue to collect photographs and tokens that represent our themed year to be buried within the YoYP Time Capsule.
10. Work will commence shortly with the steering group and wider youth population over what a legacy could look like for the work started under the Year of Young People and the opportunities to grow our work around co-production with our young people.

FINANCIAL IMPLICATIONS

11. There are no additional financial implications resulting from the implementation of the plan outwith those already reported to Cabinet in December.
12. The Council was successful in attracting the anticipated external funding from CashBack and Big Lottery Heritage Fund

COMMUNITY PLANNING IMPLICATIONS

13. The Year of Young People 2018 Plan is supportive of all three Community Planning Delivery Plans; Economy & Skills, Wellbeing and Community Safety. In addition, the objectives of the YoYP 2018 Plan is supportive of the three overarching priorities of Tackling Poverty, Youth Employment and Drugs & Alcohol.

TRANSFORMATION STRATEGY

14. The work of the YoYP is in support of our transformation strategy, in particular linked to creating a Vibrant & Empowered East Ayrshire. The YoYP very much works with our young people and encourages an active and empowered youth voice whilst celebrating and showcasing the positive contribution and talents of East Ayrshire's young people.

EQUALITIES IMPLICATIONS

15. An equalities impact assessment was undertaken as part of the development of East Ayrshire's Year of Young People Plan presented to Cabinet on 13th December 2017. This assessment reported no negative implications as a result of the plan and there have been no changes to this position through the delivery of this work.

LEGAL, RISK MANAGEMENT, POLICY IMPLICATIONS

16. There are no identifiable legal, risk or policy implications arising from this report.

CONCLUSION

17. Very good progress has been made against the programme of work within East Ayrshire's Year of Young People Plan. This work has helped strengthen the image of our young people positively, allowing for young people to take the lead throughout the delivery of these exciting initiatives.
18. Measures are in place to ensure that the ambitions of our plan will be fully realised and discussions are about to commence over the potential to establish a legacy beyond 2018.

RECOMMENDATION

19. Joint Cabinet is recommended to:
 - (i) note the content of the report.

2018 Year of Young People Mid Year Report

August 2018

2018: Year of Young People

Placing young people @ the heart of everything we do!

Introduction

The Scottish Government wishes to use 2018's Year of Young People to showcase the skills and talents of our young people, in particular by requiring that all local and national plans being developed are co-designed and co-produced with young people themselves. Across East Ayrshire, a programme of events throughout the year has encouraged and inspired young people to participate.

The group have met periodically throughout the year, giving their time after school and enthusiastically giving different views and ideas. As with all aspects of the year, the meetings must reflect the needs of our young people with outside pressures such as the school exam timetable to take into consideration.

Throughout 2018, co-production of the planned programmes have been paramount in the successes of the activities. The working group of young people are engaged and keen to bring new methods that are fun, bold new opportunities for the young people of East Ayrshire. The group is a mix of young people from different backgrounds including school pupils who are members of the Children and Young People's Cabinet, members of local area forums, looked after young people and young carers. We also have members of the Scottish Youth Parliament, Kilmarnock College and Vibrant Communities modern apprentices.

It was decided by both the working group and the Young People's Cabinet that a separate sub group would encourage additional young people's involvement, therefore reducing pressures on the Working Group to deliver and co-produce the action of the East Ayrshire YoYP Plan.

‘we have the opportunity to improve sport for young people in East Ayrshire by influencing decisions made by the East Ayrshire Sports Council’

‘it good to meet with like-minded people who are enthusiastic about sport’

“The launch was a great start to the year, we had a planning meeting and we were given the freedom and creative space to come up with a launch idea. The whole day was great fun setting up and seeing everyone together. The event was very inclusive for all young people and it was great seeing it all come together.”

Cameron Raeside.

The Official East Ayrshire 2018: Year of Young People Launch

To launch 2018, our steering group asked to have a Colour Run in Kilmarnock Town Centre. The aim was to launch the year with colour and show the vibrancy of East Ayrshire's Young People. The event held in Howard Park was a success with approximately 100 young people participating.

The park, lined with helium balloons, glow sticks and bunting, was alight with colour and fun. The Year was jointly launched with our Depute Provost and Children's Champion, Councillor Claire Leitch and Cameron Raeside a member of the YOYP steering group. We were also treated to some dancing by Grange Academy pupils and music by Euan McIlvanney. Young People ran 2018 metres whilst being showered in colourful paint. The event was enjoyed by all the young people, if a little cold!

PARTICIPATION THEME: This sub-theme aims to support young people and help them influence public services and decisions which affect their lives.

Junior Sports Council

The Junior Sports Council has been established with some very keen and inspiring young people. The Sports council is being supported by Vibrant Communities and now has 9 members who have organised and constituted themselves as well as having identified what they feel their priorities are and are in the process of creating their own brand and identity.

There priorities are...

- Give suggestions how to better portray sports in schools
- Run events to encourage young people to get involved
- Support different generations within sport
- Support Disability Sport in East Ayrshire
- Improving leisure facilities
- Create more opportunities for clubs

The Junior Sports Council now also has representation on the East Ayrshire Sports Council executive committee. Enabling young people to have a voice and give updates to the well

"I enjoyed learning how to step and run a session, it was very interesting. It taught me things I hadn't considered before, I also gained confidence and experience from being part of leadership academy and I feel I am now more comfortable leading a group as well as working in a team." Fiona established Sports Councils within East Ayrshire. The establishment of East Ayrshire Junior Sports Council is an important voice of young people's sport within East Ayrshire. The Junior Sports Council is another empowering step for young people be heard within East Ayrshire and encourage active citizenship.

East Ayrshire leadership Academy

East Ayrshire's Leadership Academy [#LA] is successfully supporting 28 young people from all 9 Academies throughout East Ayrshire. These young people achieved a National Sports Leaders Award which provides them with skills and the opportunity to progress onto be part of Sports Councils or become a SportScotland Young Ambassador within their school clusters.

These young people have successfully undertaken a SLUK Playmakers Course. They have agreed to use badminton as their choice to undertake a National Governing Body Qualification which will allow them to work in tandem with the Junior Sports Council.

The programme of Leadership Academy is to develop our young people to be qualified and create a young work force, moving through the opportunities that are available to them. It is hoped by participating in the Leadership Academy they will move on to become SportScotland Young Ambassadors and progress into volunteering and bank staff opportunities made available to them through Vibrant Communities.

EDUCATION: This sub-theme encourages young people to take a stronger role in shaping their learning.

Educational Roadshows

Health and Wellbeing roadshows have been delivered across the East Ayrshire Academies. These Roadshows designed by Health and Wellbeing Co-ordinators, create opportunities to teach topics to pupils using different methods delivered by partnership organisation's such as Barnardo's, Vibrant Communities, Casbro, Campus Cop and Samaritans.

"I started at the end of May this year and so far I have been doing loads of things like working at basketball clubs, helping with the summer programme at Wattriggs Primary and meeting the first minister. My favourite bit has been working at the all ability cycles at Athletics Arena. This job is a good way to get qualifications as it feels like not working, just having fun doing something I love. I am looking forward to the next year!"

Hope Welsh, MA

The first of the series; "No Knives Better Lives" introduced S3 pupils to knife and gang violence through an emotive play and group discussion. The Health and Wellbeing Roadshow delivered to S1 pupils encouraged discussions about young people's mental health, power of positive thinking, emotional intelligence and also signposting pupils to support agencies.

From the evaluations of these workshops:

- 54% of young people felt the roadshow has taught them strategies to support not only themselves, but others emotionally,
- 89% are now aware of services which offer support and advice where required.
- 84% can identify positive aspects of their own life and how to use this to be more proactive.
- 81% now have practical techniques to support their own mental wellbeing.

Modern Apprentices

Modern apprenticeships are a fantastic way to encourage young people who may not feel college or university is right path for them, but are interested to gain qualifications in an area they would like to work in. So far in 2018, 5 Modern Apprentices have been employed within Vibrant Communities; undertaking training in youth work, physical activity and sports development. The young people will spend 18 months learning skills on the job whilst achieving an SVQ level 3. It is planned for additional Apprenticeships to be taken on within Housing and Communities in coming months these apprenticeships will be 10 within Housing Asset Services and 5 for Outdoor Amenities.

HEALTH AND WELLBEING: This sub-theme is aimed at leading young people to have healthier, active and more fulfilling lives. Young People will have the opportunities to learn about and improve mental health and resilience.

Peer Education Groups

New Peer Education Groups have been started across the authority by East Ayrshire's Young People's Mentors. The mentors are supporting the groups of young people to take forward an issue which they feel is important to them and they would like to learn about. Topics chosen are

@Easter

Smoking, Alcohol Abuse and Mental Health, all 3 groups are now working to create an activity to engage their peers. Young People within these groups are often disengaged within school and the projects have connected and encouraged participation through a different, fun method, whilst building positive successful relationships.

These innovative approaches vary greatly across all three projects:

Mental Health: Young People are looking at the effects of mental health and are planning to create a DVD that raises awareness and dispel the myth that society shows to mental health and young people. The group will be wearing masks in the DVD to visualise that individuals hide behind fronts.

Alcohol: This group of young people are learning about the effects of alcohol abuse. Their aim is to create a poster treasure hunt throughout their school which will give facts and be an engaging activity for their peers

Smoking: The group are learning about the dangers of smoking and focusing on the numbers of young people who smoke within Secondary Education. The group are planning to create a short film on these dangers as well as information leaflets. The aim is to target new 1st year pupils prior to them taking up smoking.

EQUALITY AND DISCRIMINATION: This sub-theme will challenge the negative perceptions of young people and support young people to take leading roles in challenging discrimination in all its forms.

LGBT Empowerment Residential

In February, our LGBT+ Youth Groups and local area youth forums attended a residential at Inverclyde Sports and Fitness Centre. In addition to members of these groups there was also representation from Duke of Edinburgh groups, a Member of SYP and East Ayrshire's Young People's Cabinet. This diverse group of young people led to some interesting and fantastic discussions. The programme was developed

“I enjoyed the residential as I feel that I have built my confidence by taking part in group tasks. I also feel that I have expanded my social circles, and overall enjoyed the experience. I feel that my communication and public speaking skills have increased as I am using it in my day to day work delivering group sessions with Young People.”

with the Galston Youth Forum who provided various workshops about public speaking, committee skills and presentation skills. These workshops once all delivered gave attendees the skills to create and deliver a presentation on a topic that was important to them. Young People were given free reign to work in groups or give individual presentations which meant they were all extremely varied, the topics chosen were; Gender Inequality, The Suffragettes, The Phonetic Alphabet, Personal LGBT+ Journeys, Peer Pressure and The Residential Experience.

Overall the Residential was enjoyed by all young people, indicating that 96% felt more confident, 92% improved communication skills and 93% improved their team workskills.

Holiday Lunches Programme

The Holiday Lunches Programme has been an extremely successful and powerful project for 2018. With record breaking numbers for holiday provision delivered by Vibrant Communities, free lunches were provided for young people who registered to attend any of the programmes. This provided families with some respite from feeding children and young people in East Ayrshire and healthy lunches were provided across the authority. The Easter initiative ran for 1 week of the school holidays and provided 2500 lunches.

Programmes were across the authority with sporting activities such as Basketball, netball and bubble football to Youth Work activities for teens such as Movie Nights and Quiz Nights.

Throughout the summer of 2018, the programme will provide activities and lunches over 4 weeks of the holiday period.

ENTERPRISE AND REGENERATION: This sub-heading celebrates young people's role in innovation, entrepreneurship and the Scottish Economy.

Participatory Budgeting

East Ayrshire Council's Vibrant Communities applied to the Scottish Government's Community Choices fund for money to run PB events linked to the Health and Social Care Partnership. As 2018 is the Year of Young People, it was agreed that half of the funding should be allocated to events for young people, encouraging local people, in particular young people, to make decisions

“We were behind the scenes organising the events and it was good to be in control of the way monies are given out to young people. I really enjoyed the whole process” about budgets and monies that directly affect them.

The executive group of the Young People’s Cabinet was approached to set up a steering group to take the process forward. Six young people volunteered to be part of the group to agree criteria, dates, event types and voting systems.

The steering group decided that bids had to be made by young people but that projects could cover any thing that involved young people. They also decided that the voting age should be eight and above, which allowed adults to have a say in the process too.

Events were held in Bonnyton, Cumnock, Drongan and Stewarton, and in total, 34 projects shared £60,000. A full list of the successful bids are noted in Appendix A.

Throughout 2018, the money will be spent on local young people and the process will have given young people a better insight into democracy and the importance of their vote.

East Ayrshire Youth Work Network Grants

East Ayrshire Youth Work Network created a Year of Young People grant scheme for affiliated members. The grants are to support groups to create and host innovative events in their communities. The youth work network is continuing to grow in members and all members are encouraged to take part in the grant scheme. So far grants have been given to Yipworld, 5th Kilmarnock Girls Brigade, and different groups including Barnardo’s for visits to the Scottish Parliament, Ayrshire Warriors and a Beauty Therapy Project.

Enterprise Challenge

The seed funding project is designed to inspire young entrepreneurs to raise money for their associated youth groups throughout East Ayrshire. The fund gives groups £50 as a start up grant and make more monies for their groups. At present this opportunity has been offered to Youth Groups and the Youth Work Network and 2 applications have been made from Drongan Youth Group who are organising a guess

"I'm so pleased that the young people were given this incredible opportunity to decide where and how the funding should be used. All of the successful projects represent the very wide range of interests that our young people have and I wish each project every success with their extra funding."

Children's Champion and Depute Provost; Councillor Claire Leitch

the teddies name competition and Stewarton Youth Group who are organising a craft fayre with coffee and cakes for their local community. The group plan to spend the money on decorations, craft materials and ingredients for cakes to sell.

It is hoped when youth groups restart after the summer period there will be a greater uptake from more clubs across the authority.

CULTURE: This sub-theme celebrates talents and contribution to Scotland's Culture and Arts.

Intergenerational Projects

World War 1, Blast from the Past is a series of Intergenerational projects running throughout 2018, having received a successful application to the Heritage Lottery Fund the project will visit the battlefields in the Somme during Armistice Day in November 2018. They will visit the British Foreign Legions Thiepval memorial Ceremony on the 11th November, and also visit the trenches at New Foundland Park amongst other excursions during their 4 day visit.

As part of the project, three 12 week intergenerational programmes will run preceding the overseas visit in November. The first of these projects, in the Galston area has been looking at each other's knowledge and family stories of World War 1, visiting local War Memorials and visits from local residents who have given details of soldiers from Galston who served in the Great War. This group is made up of members from Galston Youth Forum and Ross Court Sheltered Housing along with older adults from Galston who have links to Vibrant Communities.

This project is working with different age groups to ensure everyone is learning from one another, the Galston Youth Forum who were part of the application process to the Heritage Lottery Fund are shaping their own educational journey.

Cultural Workshops

As part of the Cultural workshops, a photography project has been established across Year of Young People's Instagram account. The Sub Group indicated that they would like to run the project on Social Media and show East Ayrshire through the eyes of young people. Our young people have been encouraged to post pictures of the things they like to the #eayoyp2018 Instagram account, all images will form the final product of this project.

ADDITIONAL ACTIVITIES: As a result of the work of our plan, there have been a range of additional work pieces that have connected well with the themed year.

Further to the fantastic programmes within the Year of Young People Plan, we have supported other programmes such as:

Ayrshire East Scouts hosted an awards night to recognise the achievements of their young people and volunteers in throughout East Ayrshire.

Austrian School pupils visited East Ayrshire and were treated to a day visiting Ayrshire's local assets. The visit has created positive steps in a twinning with Oberndorf and Kilmarnock Academy.

The Children and Young People's Cabinet met with the First Minister, Nicola Sturgeon and her travelling Cabinet. The group gave examples of the pieces of work they have been involved in and were able to grill members of the Scottish Government.

A series of social media awareness campaigns have been launched such as Deaf Awareness Week, National Obesity Week, National Children's Day and Health Week.

There has also been Fly the Flag for LGBT History Month and fly the Flag for Commonwealth Affirmation Events.

PROMOTION AND SOCIAL MEDIA REACH: Publicity has been a key component of our YoYP Plan. eac.eu/eayoyp2018

Throughout the year, it has been important to have a social media focus. Young People asked to have an Instagram account and it was decided to utilise the large following of the Vibrant Communities Facebook and Twitter accounts. The use of Instagram, has given a platform to celebrate particular local and national campaigns throughout the year and advertise the events happening across East Ayrshire. In addition to this, we are also trialling the use of a Snapchat account for young people which works at our larger one day events but not regularly. Appendix 2 highlights the additional campaigns celebrated through Social Media.

Our Journey Continues....

Over the next 6 months the Year of Young People Team will work to complete the actions, projects and initiatives set out in our 2018 YoYP Plan

Health & Wellbeing: 1st Annual Hearing of East Ayrshire Young People's Cabinet

The Children and Young People's Cabinet will be reviewing the feedback from the Health and Wellbeing Surveys in August of this year, the young people will reflect on the feedback and as a Cabinet will report on the state of Children's Rights and Wellbeing in East Ayrshire.

Health & Wellbeing: 2018's Annual Youth Conferences

The Cabinet Sub Group are working to create this year's youth conferences. The group have produced a consultation and using the feedback from this, have decided the overarching topic of Young People's Rights. The group indicated they would like to link workshops into children's rights such as a workshops regarding Identity, Discrimination and Mental Health. Young People have also stated they would like to have the conference with a festival theme and celebrate some of the musical talents of our young people at the end of the day. The group are extremely enthusiastic about this and their new ideas are rejuvenating the well-established conferences.

Culture: Youth Engagement Masterclasses

Working with various youth work providers within East Ayrshire, masterclasses with the youth forums across the authority will bring together information for young people to express themselves and help develop Youth Voice in East Ayrshire. Barnardos, Young Carers and Vibrant Communities. Kilmarnock Youth Forum will come together to encourage a greater understanding for young people to express their opinions and feel connected to civic life within the Kilmarnock Area. It is recognised that young people must be the driving force to encourage participation from young people.

Similar programmes will run within the Auchinleck, Cumnock and Dalmellington areas.

Culture: Cultural Workshops; more to come!

The Sub Group have specified that they would like to showcase these images and an application has been made to the BIG Lottery Year of Young People Fund to display the images on Council Vehicles and continue the legacy and success of the Year of Young People .

A Gaelic Awareness Day will bring together pupils from the Gaelic Primary School and St

'I'm looking forward to seeing what we can achieve over the rest of the year during YOYP and beyond'

Andrews Primary for a fun day of activities associated with Scotland's Gaelic community. The day will offer young people the opportunity to learn and teach each other some Gaelic language, as well as experience Scottish cultural activities such as a Ceilidh and accordion musi, etc..

Participation: Champion Showcase:

East Ayrshire's Champions Showcase Event will take place on 5th December, 2018. This awards evening will celebrate and recognise the fantastic work of our young people within 10 different categories. The event will be hosted Dumfries House and will be an extravagant evening of good food, awards and celebration. Shortlisted young people will be celebrated for their skills, talents and contributions to our communities .

The Sub Group are working together to co-produce all aspects of the event. The group have created categories and are planning a masquerade theme for the event. In October, young people will come together with Depute Provost Leitch, Children's Champion to shortlist the categories for the event.

Time Capsule

It was decided to mark the year with a time capsule burying a collection of photos and memories of events and activities throughout 2018. In addition to this the Sub Group requested to mark the legacy of East Ayrshire's Year of Young People, that a photo album be created that captures 2018 and made available to East Ayrshire's communities. This imagery will showcase all the fantastic events of the year and will be displayed throughout East Ayrshire schools and libraries.

Information on upcoming activity will be promoted through our social media outlets including those of the Council's Corporate and Vibrant Communities accounts, using the hashtag #eayoyp2018.

Information will also be maintained within the YoYP web pages eac.eu/eayoyp2018
