

LOCAL. Organic PRODUCE

keeping it fresh, keeping it local... East Ayrshire school meals

A&A Spittal, Auchinleck

Alistair and Alistair Spittal (Senior) started farming 52 years ago at Berryhill Farm in Auchinleck. A&A source fruit and vegetables both locally and nationally, from 2009 they started supplying local and organic fruit and vegetables to your school.

Graham's The Family Dairy

Organic milk is good for you, good for the environment and good for the cows too, but the best thing about organic milk is the fantastic taste. Each and every organic pint we produce comes from cows reared on Scottish farms, free from pesticides and fertilisers.

Corrie Mains Farm, Mauchline

Jim and Anne Smillie came to Corrie Mains Farm in 1996 both from dairy farm backgrounds. They started free range egg production with 700 hens and as demand has increased now have 13,000. All their eggs are sold through selective outlets such as delis, butchers, farm shops and since 2005 direct to our schools.

Greencity Wholefoods, Glasgow

Greencity Wholefoods is a small workers co-operative based in Glasgow with 34 members. They have been supplying Scotland with quality, natural foods since 1978, and now stock over 4,000 vegetarian, organic and natural foods with a large selection of fair trade goods.

Pieroni & Sons, Ayr

The company was established in 1945 and has been delivering fresh fish throughout Ayrshire for over 50 years. They are happy to be involved in the healthy eating programme, set up by East Ayrshire Council and currently supply fresh fish and Red Tractor certified halal chicken to our schools.

Pollok Williamson, Ayrshire

Pollok Williamson has a reputation as one of the finest quality butchers in the Ayrshire area. Mr Stewart Duguid and his wife May took over Pollok Williamson butchers business in 1978. All their meat is certified Quality Meat Scotland.
