PURPOSE OF THE REPORT

1. This report outlines the proposals received for new names for the new build establishments to replace the current New Farm Primary School and Early Childhood Centre, Silverwood Primary School, James Hamilton Academy, Kilmarnock Academy and 3-18 Gaelic Provision. From the proposals submitted and subsequent reason given for each, Cabinet will make a decision on the new names for each of the respective schools and campus.

BACKGROUND

2. On 30 October 2013, the Cabinet considered responses and comments received during the public consultation exercise on the creation of a new campus arising from the proposed merger of New Farm Primary School and Early Childhood Centre and Silverwood Primary School and the proposed merger of James Hamilton Academy and Kilmarnock Academy and having reviewed the proposal agreed that the young people attending these establishments transfer to a new secondary school, primary school and Early Childhood Centre, and that the new establishments be located on the Sutherland Drive site adjacent to the existing James Hamilton Academy.
3. On 4 June 2014, the Cabinet considered responses and comments received during the public consultation exercise on the creation of a new 3-18 provision in Gaelic Education involving the relocation of Gaelic Medium Education from Onthank Primary School and Early Childhood Centre and Gaelic secondary education from Grange Academy, to the new campus at the site of the current James Hamilton Academy and having reviewed the proposal agreed that pre-school, primary and secondary Gaelic education provision should be located on the same campus with additional accommodation being funded by grant from the Scottish Government.

List of proposals

Kilmarnock Campus name
Consultee	Proposal	Reason
James Hamilton Academy parents	The Dean Campus	Reflecting the historic links with the Dean castle and the vibrant community links with the Dean castle country park.
James Hamilton Academy parents	Burns Campus	In respect of the historic links with Robert Burns, our national bard and world respected songwriter and poet.
James Hamilton Academy parents	James Hamilton Campus	Only if the name chosen for the Academy is Kilmarnock Academy. If the council executive chooses to keep one of the two merging school names, then it should keep both of them in the interests of fairness.
James Hamilton Academy parents	New Farm Loch Campus	Geographic reflecting the area of the site in the New Farm Loch housing estate.
James Hamilton Academy pupils	No proposal for the campus name
James Hamilton Academy staff	Kilmarnock Campus	Most general sounding name – easily identified for visitors, public etc. As there are 2 Nobel Prize winners we should be proud to retain the name Kilmarnock. Involve town's name as no other secondary in town has Kilmarnock in campus title.
James Hamilton Academy staff	No proposal for the campus name	No need for an overall campus name. There should be a new name for the amalgamated secondary schools and primary schools: James Hamilton Primary and High School of Kilmarnock
James Hamilton Academy staff	Robert Burns Campus	Arguably most famous Ayrshire man.
James Hamilton Academy staff	Robert The Bruce Campus	Arguably most famous king of Scots – from Ayrshire and campaigned fought battles in the area.

James Hamilton Academy staff	James Hamilton Campus	Keep the history of both schools.
Kilmarnock Academy parents	Kilmarnock Campus	Kilmarnock should be in the name. Selecting Kilmarnock will bring the new campus in line with Grange Campus and St Joseph's Campus.
Kilmarnock Academy pupils	Kilmarnock (Learning/ Education) Campus. Kilmarnock Campus	It identifies the name of the campus with the people in the town. It will be less confusing having the same identity for both the campus and the secondary.
Kilmarnock Academy staff	Kilmarnock (Learning/ education) Campus. Kilmarnock Campus	It is felt that the overall campus name should reflect the secondary within the Campus, another name could give rise to confusion. It is also consistent with other campuses such as St Joseph and Grange Campus whose secondary schools are named accordingly. Ensures links to heritage are not lost.

The 'New Farm' name has historic links to this district of Kilmarnock. The loch in the area was a winter flood

		which froze over and was used for curling and skating by local people over several centuries. Therefore we feel that retaining this name within the institution helps perpetuate continuity. There is also the obviously geographical point that the campus is located within this part of Kilmarnock after which the housing in the area is named.

(Primary should be James Hamilton Primary). Retain name (call the new PS James Hamilton Primary School). K.A. staff and pupils are re-locating maintaining name/bringing name to New Farm will smooth the merger, help merge/generate new school identity and community. The history of the school should be enough evidence to carry forward the name of the school. The town should also have a school with the town name in it. We should be proud of our town and endeavour to improve the whole identity. The history of school should be kept as several Nobel Prize winners. History of school should not be lost. Only school with several Nobel winners. I don't think the historical name of Kilmarnock Academy should be lost due to connection with Nobel Prize winner Sir Alexander Fleming. Keep the history of both schools.

Kilmarnock Academy staff	Kilmarnock Academy	There should be a school in Kilmarnock which incorporates the town name, thereby allowing the people of Kilmarnock to identify with, and feel pride in, the new secondary school. In addition, there is an unrivalled wealth of world-renowned academic and historical heritage connected with Kilmarnock Academy; not least two Nobel Prize winners of which the Local Authority is rightly proud. Ayrshire Federation of Historical Societies	Kilmarnock Academy	As a Society we are strongly in favour of retaining historical names for institutions and places in local communities. We believe that this fosters a sense of community identity and encourages people to value the places in which they live. A sense of historic continuity has therefore a social and community benefit. Kilmarnock Academy (KA) is in continuity with the original school of Kilmarnock, which can be traced to the late sixteenth century, but which probably existed before then. It has therefore had a continuous existence of over 500 years, which is not a history to be disposed of lightly. There have been many distinguished pupils of KA. It is unique in Scotland in having 2 Nobel Laureates, and is the only public school in Britain (excluding N. Ireland) to have this distinction. In addition, there are many other pupils who have distinguished themselves in the arts, the sciences, politics, and in several other different spheres. As an inspiration for pupils and fostering a sense of community pride, retaining the name we believe offers a unique opportunity. In wider historical and literary writing, one of the most frequent ways in which the word 'Kilmarnock' occurs is when discussing a former pupil's attendance at KA. If the town name is regarded as a 'brand' that promotes the local economy and community, it seems essential to retain it in the name of one of its most significant institutions. This is seen in the recent multi-author book, Global Citizens, Local Roots: Lord Boyd Orr, Sir Alexander Fleming, and Kilmarnock Academy (Ayr: AAHNS, 2015).

We believe that this fosters a sense of community identity and encourages people to value the places in which they live. A sense of historic continuity has therefore a social and community benefit. The name 'Kilmarnock' came from an early Celtic monk, and therefore the town's name is itself derived from Gaelic. Naming the unit after him would remind pupils of East Ayrshire's Gaelic inheritance, and would also decisively root it in Kilmarnock, by using an element from its name.
